

1. Objectives

The Supply Chain Code of Conduct (the Code) sets out the minimum ethical expectations of Suppliers and Contractors who work with Worley (herein, Company).

2. Scope and Applicability

Worley maintains the highest standards of corporate governance and ethics, and conducts business in an open, honest, and ethical manner as per our Code of Conduct and other policy commitments. This includes commitments on human rights, sustainability, and diversity, equity and inclusion. Find out more here: <https://www.worley.com/investors/corporate-governance>. Worley has embarked on a journey of continuous improvement with the aim to be recognized as an industry leader in corporate responsibility and therefore actively strives to implement ethical, socially responsible supply chain practices and anti-bribery, corruption, and modern slavery practices. We do this by working closely with our Suppliers and Contractors as partners.

Worley is a signatory to the United Nations Global Compact, which aligns our practices with the ten universally accepted principles in the areas of human rights, labor standards, environment, and anti-corruption. We also are committed with the Sustainability Development Goals, and we expect our suppliers, contractors and business partners do so by working on what is material to our business. It is expected that Suppliers and Contractors who agree to work with Worley will meet or exceed the requirements set out in this Code as applicable to the nature of services being provided. Worley reserves the right to audit compliance with this Code and cancel business with Suppliers and Contractors who do not meet the minimum expectations set out herein.

Worley conducts due diligence on Suppliers and Contractors per Worley's data privacy policy available here: <https://www.worley.com/-/media/files/worley/investors/corporate-governance/policies/privacy-policy-2021-ms-cd-pol-0002.pdf>

This Code shall be applied to all Contractors and Suppliers, and their subcontractors and sub-suppliers.

A breach or potential breach of the Code must be reported at www.worleyethics.com
